

Weston house fire claims life

(KAIR)--The death of a Weston, Missouri man, resulting from an early Sunday morning residential house fire, is under investigation, with a person of interest speaking to authorities as of Sunday night.

That's according to a news release from the Platte County Sheriff's Office, which said they, along with the Weston Police Department, were notified of the fire in the 600 block of Prospect Street, in Weston, shortly before 2:00 Sunday morning. Found dead inside the home was 60-year-old Timothy Darby.

The release said both the Sheriff's Office and Police Department "do not believe that there is any danger to the public."

Details of the person of interest were not made public as of Sunday night.
