

Johnson-Brock Board of Education Meets

(KLZA)--Following the annual job performance evaluation of the Johnson-Brock K-12 Principal Monday night the Johnson-Brock Board of Education voted to extend the contract of Lucas Dalinghaus for the 2022-23 school year.

In addition, Dalinghaus will receive a $4-thousand salary increase for the 2021-22 school year.

During the meeting, Dalinghaus presented an update on school improvement and advised the Board members of a community meeting to be held March 29 at 6:00 P.M.

The rough draft of the 2021-2022 course schedule and ACT data sheet was also shared with the Board.

In other business the Board approved a teaching contract for the 2021-22 schoolyear with Diane Freitas; Approved the summer drivers education tuition rate of $250 per student and a contract with Tim Newman for 2021 summer driver education instruction at a rate of $150 per student.

Membership renewal in the Nebraska Association of School Boards for 2021-22 was approved at a cost of $3,563.

Many Signals Communications