(KMZA)--A Sabetha man is facing multiple child sex charges.

Lippert says the first three charges are alleged to have occurred between January 25, 2017 and January 24, 2019, and the charge of sexual exploitation of a child between January 25, 2017, and January 24, 2021.

The case was investigated by the Sabetha Police Department.

Lippert said a preliminary hearing has been set for April 19.

Davis remains in the Nemaha County Jail, held on a $100,000 bond.
