

Two arrested in Falls City drug bust

(KNZA)--Two individuals were arrested on multiple drug charges following the execution of a search warrant at a Falls City apartment Thursday afternoon.

According to the Richardson County Sheriff's Office, deputies served a search warrant at an apartment located at 2702 Chase Street at about 4:00.

The Sheriff's Office says deputies located about 55 grams of methamphetamine, as well as marijuana and drug paraphernalia.

Also seized were multiple police scanners and a list of deputies and their badge numbers.

The Sheriff's Office says the scanners were believed to be used to monitor law enforcement radio traffic during the distribution of methamphetamine.

Arrested were Daniel Lock and Taylor Zimmerling.

Lock was arrested on four felony charges—including possession of over 28 grams of meth, possession of meth, possession of money during a drug crime and no drug tax stamp. He was also cited for possession of drug paraphernalia.

Zimmerling was arrested on three felony charges—including possession of over 28 grams of meth, possession of meth and no drug tax stamp. In addition, she was cited for possession of marijuana and drug paraphernalia.

The pair were booked into the Richardson County Jail.
