Sabetha man pleads no contest to child sex charges

(KMZA)--A Sabetha man facing multiple child sex charges has entered into a plea agreement.

The Nemaha County Attorney's Office says Jesse Davis pleaded no contest Thursday in Nemaha County District Court to charges of indecent liberties with a child and sexual exploitation of a child.

In exchange for the plea, charges of aggravated indecent liberties with a child and criminal sodomy were dismissed.

Sentencing was set for February 17.

The offenses date back to 2017

Davis was arrested in April following an investigation by the Sabetha Police Department.

He remains free on bond.
