

Former Doniphan Co deputy bound over on charges

(KNZA)--A former Doniphan County Sheriff's deputy will stand trial on multiple charges.

Following a preliminary hearing Tuesday, a judge determined there was sufficient evidence for Nathaniel Keller to be bound over to Doniphan County District Court on 15 counts.

Arraignment was scheduled for January 5.

He was arrested in June of this year after Kansas Bureau of Investigation agents served a search warrant on his home.

Keller has been charged with criminal sodomy, three counts of aggravated indecent liberties with a child, furnishing alcohol to a minor for illicit purposes and promoting obscenity to minors.

The charges stem from crimes alleged to have occurred in 2017 with a child 14 or older, but less than 16 years of age.

In addition, Keller has been charged with criminal restraint, criminal threat, four counts of domestic battery, criminal damage to property, stalking and aggravated intimidation of a witness or victim.

Those crimes are alleged to have occurred in 2019 and this year.

Keller remains free on a $500,000 bond.
