

Atchison Police seek missing truck

(KAIR)--Atchison Police are searching for a vehicle, reported stolen over the weekend.

According to a release from Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson, the 2012 Dodge Ram, owned by an Edgerton, Missouri man, was parked in the 1500 block of Atchison's Main Street, in the alley north of Main, with the keys inside, at the time it was stolen.

It's believed the truck was taken sometime between 6:40 and 7:10 Saturday evening.

Wilson describes the pickup as a white flatbed truck with aluminum tool boxes mounted on each side of the flatbed.

Anyone with information pertaining to the theft should contact Atchison Police at 913-367-4323.

Many Signals Communications