Richardson Co Sheriff's office mourning loss of deputy

(KNZA)--The Richardson County Sheriff's office is mourning the loss of one of their own.

The Sheriff's Office, in a Facebook post, announced that Sergeant Jeremy Goldsberry died Sunday morning in Falls City.

The Sheriff's Office said their hearts are with his family, friends, and everyone that loved and cared about him.

The Post says Sergeant Goldsberry was a well respected and important piece of the Richardson County Sheriff's Office who has worked in law enforcement in Richardson County for much of the last 20 years. The Sheriff's Office added he will be greatly missed.

Funeral arrangements are pending.
