

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=73114>

Covid cases on the rise in Holt County MO

(KLZA)-- The number of active COVID-19 cases in Holt County, Missouri increased from 19 on Monday to 28 cases on Tuesday.

The Holt County Health Department reported 14 additional cases with all those individuals in isolation in accordance with the Centers for Disease Control guidelines.

In Atchison County, Missouri there were 49 active cases of COVID-19 reported Sunday but none of the cases required hospitalization at that time. Among those suffering with COVID-19 the age range was from infant to more than 80 years of age.

Atchison County has reported 1056 cases of COVID-19 with 21 deaths reported due to COVID.

Many Signals Communications