(KAIR)--A Saturday evening Atchison County single-vehicle rollover wreck sent a Cummings teenager to the hospital.

The Kansas Highway Patrol says it happened on U.S. 59 Highway about 8 miles southwest of Atchison shortly after 7:00.

According to the KHP report, 17-year-old Coltin Myers was traveling northeast when his Nissen Altima drifted across the highway and into the north ditch. The vehicle struck an embankment and rolled multiple times.

Myers was transported to Amberwell Health, in Atchison, with suspected minor injuries.
