Neb woman injured in Nemaha Co, KS wreck

(KMZA)--A Falls City, Nebraska woman was injured in a single-vehicle Nemaha County, Kansas wreck Sunday evening.

The Nemaha County Sheriff's Office said 53-year-old Michelle Werner was driving around the curve at 240th and P Roads when she swerved to miss a deer, causing her Buick Regal to leave the roadway and strike a tree.

Werner was transported by ambulance to the Sabetha Community Hospital with unspecified injuries.

The wreck was reported around 7:00 Sunday evening.
