Missing Atchison truck found in Missouri

(KAIR)--A pickup truck, stolen while parked at an Atchison residence, has been recovered in Saint Joseph, Missouri.

Wilson, in a release, says the 2003 Ford pick-up was stolen sometime between 8:00 Monday night and 5:00 Tuesday morning, while it was parked in the 1100 block of Mound Street.

On Tuesday morning, around 8:30, Wilson says the truck was located in Saint Joseph, in the 3100 block of Frederick Avenue.

An investigation is now on-going between Atchison and Saint Joseph Police.

Many Signals Communications