Fairview voters to face sales tax issue in November
(KNZA)--Voters in the city of Fairview will decide the fate of a sales tax issue during the November 8th general election.

The Fairview City Council approved a resolution at their June 16 meeting placing a half-cent citywide retailers sales tax proposal on the ballot.

Proceeds would go to fund infrastructure improvements.

If approved by voters, the sales tax would not go into effect until April 2023
