

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=73997>

Topeka man facing drug charges in Richardson County

(KLZA)-- An early morning traffic stop on Thursday led to the arrest of a Topeka man in Richardson County.

About 1:25 a.m. Deputies stopped Renso Vazquez Cabanas and learned that there were active warrants for his arrest in both Richardson and Otoe counties in Nebraska.

During a search of the vehicle, Deputies located approximately 10 grams of Methamphetamine.

Cabanas is facing charges of possession of Methamphetamine; Possession of money during a drug crime, obstructing a peace officer and no license.

Many Signals Communications