

Falls City motel arrest results in multiple charges

(KLZA)-- A Topeka man is facing charges of robbery, burglary, assault and criminal mischief in addition to a habitual criminal enhancement following his arrest at the Check-In Motel in Falls City on July 8.

37-year-old Tyler Brown is alleged to have taken room keys form the motel office and assaulted the motel owner when he refused to rent him a room.

After stealing the keys Brown allegedly went into several rooms of the motel and then got into a fight with a motel guest in the parking lot.

Brown is alleged to have used a tree branch to break down a door and then assaulted the owner with the branch.

Brown is being held on bond at the Richardson County Law Enforcement Center.
