

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=74106>

Meet the Commissioner Candidates event set

(KNZA)--The Brown County Liberty Alliance is sponsoring a “ Meet the Commissioner Candidates” event Thursday evening (July 21)

The event will be at 6:30 at the Brown County Historical Society Ag Museum on East Iowa Street in Hiawatha.

On hand will be the two Republican candidates vying for 1st District Brown County Commissioner---incumbent Richard Lehmkuhl and Kenneth Pyle.

All voters living in District 1 are invited to meet the two candidates, listen to presentations and ask questions.

Lehmkuhl will kick off the evening with his presentation at 6:30 followed by a brief question and answer session. At 7:00, attendees will have a short break, followed by a presentation and question and answer session with Pyle beginning at 7:30.

The winner of the August 2 Republican primary will face Democrat Bill Collins, who currently serves as Hiawatha Mayor, in November.

Many Signals Communications