

Horton woman arrested on drug charges

(KNZA)--A Horton woman was arrested on drug charges after she allegedly granted a Sheriff's deputy consent to search her residence.

According to a report from Brown County Sheriff John Merchant, while on duty Saturday a deputy identified the odor of burnt marijuana coming from inside a residence.

A consent search was allegedly granted, which resulted in the arrest of 35-year-old Anna Kaler on charges of Possession of methamphetamine, possession of marijuana and possession of drug paraphernalia.

Kaler was booked into the Brown County Jail and was later released after posting bond.
