Motorcyclist dies from injuries in Buchanan Co MO crash

(KNZA)--A motorcyclist died from injuries received Wednesday evening in a two-vehicle Buchanan County, Missouri crash.

According to the The Missouri State Highway Patrol, 34-year-old John Shea, of Stewartsville, was westbound on U.S. 36, 13 miles east of St. Joseph, when his motorcycle rear-ended the towed unit of a semi truck driven by 55-year-old Scott Hopkins, of Mayetta Kansas, around 6:30.

Shea was ejected. He was transported to Mosaic Life Care, in St. Joseph, where he later died.

The Patrol reports he was wearing a helmet.

Hopkins was not hurt.
