

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=74116>

Former Huskers to highlight CMC charity golf event

(KLZA)-- The 11th Annual Community Medical Center Foundation Golf “Fore” Good Health Charity Golf Tournament will be Friday at the Classic Club 8 Golf Course west of Falls City.

Event Director Linda Santo said money raised by the annual tournament is used for needed medical equipment or wellness needs.

Former Nebraska football players Steve Taylor and Clester Johnson will take part in the event along with former Husker player and current coach Mickey Joseph. Also playing in the event will be former Husker basketball and NBA veteran Erick Strickland.

For those that do not golf, you are invited to a Meet & Greet event at the golf course beginning at 10:30 a.m. All of the former Huskers will talk and take questions from those in attendance.

To obtain a ticket for the meet and greet session contact Linda Santo at 402-245-6704 or 402-245-0645.

Many Signals Communications