One injured in Holt County wreck

(KLZA)-- A Maitland, Missouri man suffered what were described as minor injuries in single vehicle wreck on Missouri Route 113 four miles south of Maitland Tuesday afternoon around 2:30.

The Missouri Highway Patrol reports 54-year-old Dean Hawn was westbound on MO-113 when the Mack Truck he was driving went off the north side of the road, returned to the road, then slid across the eastbound lane and off the south side of the road, came back onto the road again and then overturned onto the drivers side and skidded off the south side of the road.

Hawn was transported to a St. Joseph medical facility by private vehicle. The truck was totaled.
