

Commissioners discuss Richardson County Courthouse roof

(KLZA)-- Richardson County Commissioners met with Dave Bramow of Prochaska & Associates when they met Tuesday to review plans for replacing the roof of the Richardson County Courthouse.

The architectural firm is putting together a bid package for the Board to review and approve with plans to advertise for sealed bids later this year with the project expected to take place in 2023.

Commissioners also reviewed a number of budgets for the next fiscal year with Highway Superintendent Steve Darveau Jr., Sheriff Rick Hardesty and Emergency Management Agency Director Brian Kirkendall.

Sheriff Hardesty reported on a number of maintenance issues at the Law Enforcement Center. He also reported there were 20 inmates at the County Jail on Tuesday with another 19 inmates from Richardson County being housed at the Washington County Jail in Blair.
