

KS pursuit ends in NE; One arrested

(KAIR)--A pursuit, that began when the driver allegedly fled from Jackson County authorities, ended in Nebraska with 39-year-old Terrance Dowd taken into custody.

According to a release from Jackson County Sheriff Tim Morse, a Deputy with his office attempted a traffic stop around 11:30 Monday night near K-9 Highway and U.S. Highway 75, for a traffic infraction. Instead of stopping, it's alleged the driver sped off, headed northbound on Highway 75.

That began a pursuit that continued across Brown County into Nebraska, with the pursuit then turned over the Richardson County, Nebraska Sheriff's Office.

The Richardson County Sheriff's Office said the pursuit ended in Auburn, Nebraska early Tuesday morning after deputies deployed tire deflating devices.

The driver, identified as Dowd, a resident of Fremont, Nebraska, was taken into custody on traffic and drug charges.

Many Signals Communications