

Crash with dog injures Atchison Co motorcyclist

(KAIR)--A Monday night, single vehicle Atchison County motorcycle crash with a dog, sent the rider to the hospital.

Injured was 21-year-old Adrian Birkinsha, of rural Atchison County who, according to a release from Atchison County Sheriff Jack Laurie, “had been northbound in the 5500 block of Ottawa Road,” riding a 1999 Honda Shadow motorcycle, which struck a dog and crashed.

According to Laurie, the crash occurred around 9:40 Monday night, with Birkinsha’s family transporting him to Amberwell Atchison for hospital treatment for minor injuries to his legs and arms.

Sheriff’s Deputies took a report of the wreck when they were called to the hospital around 10:30 Monday night when they received word of the crash.
