Elwood woman facing multiple counts of rape

(KNZA)--An Elwood woman is facing multiple counts of rape.

Nemaha/ Marshall County Attorney Brad Lippert, who is serving as special prosecutor in the case, said a complaint has been filed in Doniphan County District Court charging 22-year-old Kaitland Quimby with four counts of rape.

Lippert said the complaint alleges that Quimby engaged in sexual intercourse with two different children under the age of 14, each of them on two separate occasions.

Quimby was arrested last month following an investigation by the Elwood Police Department.

A preliminary hearing in the case has been set for September 27.

Quimby remains in the Doniphan County Jail, held on a $600,000 bond.
