

Coronation program kicks off Richardson County Fair

(KLZA)--The Richardson County Fair is underway in Humboldt.

Wednesday night was the Coronation program as part of the Humboldt Fall Festival leading into the Fair.

Jayley McNealy was crowned Queen of the Fair with Madeline Scholl 1st runner up.

Crowned as King was Duaine Stalder and Linda Dovel was selected as the Humboldt Chamber of Commerce Woman of the Year.

The theme for this years Fair is The Magic of Music.

The Fair is Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

The DC Lynch Shows will be open around the square during the fair. There will be a parade around the Square in Humboldt at 11:00 a.m. each day.

There will be free entertainment on stage at 2:00 p.m. and 8:00 p.m. Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

Thursday's entertainment will be Jimmy Weber, performing country music. He was a member of the US Air Force Band during his 24 years of service in the Air Force.

Friday the Jason Mayer Band featuring Humboldt native Jason Mayer playing country, rock, folk and blue grass music.

On Saturday Top Down will perform. A live cover band playing hits from four decades.

The free entertainment is sponsored by the Richardson County Ag Society and the Humboldt Chamber of Commerce.

Other events include:

Thursday

6:30 p.m. the Southeast Community Band will play on stage in the Park.

7:30 the Farm Family Awards will be presented

Friday

4 p.m. - Kiddie Tractor Pull at the livestock Center.

Saturday

8 a-m – antique tractor show

Photo courtesy of Randy Gottula

Many Signals Communications