

Deputy kick earns charge for accused thief

(KAIR)--An Atchison woman, arrested last week in connection to a stolen vehicle, faces additional charges following an alleged attack on law enforcement at the Atchison County Jail.

31-year-old Sacandra Casiano was arrested Thursday, in the 800 block of South 6th Street, after Atchison Police Officers observed a 4-door Chevrolet at that location and determined that it was the vehicle reported stolen in Leavenworth earlier in the week.

According to Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson, Casiano was arrested for possession of stolen property and booked into the Atchison County Jail. As she was being booked into custody, Atchison County Sheriff Jack Laurie reports Casiano kicked a deputy, who was asked to assist jail staff with her booking due to her being uncooperative.

Casiano, following the alleged kick, was arrested for battery on a law enforcement officer.

She remains in custody at the Atchison County Jail

Many Signals Communications