

Convicted workplace arsonist heads to prison

(KAIR)--A Leavenworth man who attempted to burn down the restaurant where he worked is going to prison.

That's according to a release from Leavenworth County Attorney Todd Thompson, who says Troy Grimm, Wednesday, was sentenced in Leavenworth County District Court to 3-years-9-months of incarceration.

Grimm, in August, plead no contest to arson for the March 22, 2022 fire at 513 N. 10th Street, the location of the Towne Pub. The Leavenworth Police Department investigated the arson at the establishment that had fired Grimm the very morning of the fire.

The investigation led to the arrest of Grimm at his Leavenworth residence. It was there that police found materials used to make the Molotov cocktails that were similar to those found at the Towne Pub.

The fire caused no damage due to rainfall, and no one was hurt.
