

Three arrested in Brown Co drug bust

(KNZA)--The Brown County Sheriff's Office arrested three individuals on drug charges this week after a search warrant was obtained for a Robinson residence.

According to a release from Brown County Sheriff John Merchant, deputies made contact with 35-year-old Robinson resident Justin Horne, who was wanted out of Richardson County, Nebraska, around 10:00 Monday evening at a residence at 304 Parsons Street.

Another individual at the residence, 33-year-old Las Vegas, Nevada resident Sara Marano, also had an active warrant.

While in the residence, Merchant said deputies allegedly noticed illegal drug paraphernalia in plain view and obtained a search warrant for the address.

After completion of the investigation, Horne was arrested on local charges of Felony Possession of Marijuana, Possession of Opiates, Possession of Drug Paraphernalia and No Drug Tax Stamp. He was also arrested on a Richardson County warrants for Felony Burglary, Criminal trespass, Misdemeanor Theft and Criminal Damage to Property.

Marano was arrested on local charges of Possession of Opiates, Possession of Marijuana, Possession of Drug Paraphernalia, and No Drug Tax Stamp. She was also arrested on a Richardson County warrant for Burglary, Criminal Damage to Property, Criminal Trespass and Theft.

In addition, 63-year-old Imogene Summerlin, of Robinson, was arrested on local charges of Possession of Opiates, Possession of Drug Paraphernalia and Possession of Marijuana.

Following their arrests, the trio were booked into the Brown County Jail.

Merchant said about 3 pounds of marijuana as well as evidence of Meth, pipes and paraphernalia were located within the residence.
