

Sunday crash injures two in Atchison Co

(KAIR)--A Sunday afternoon dump truck rollover crash, in Atchison County, sent two to the hospital.

According to a release from Atchison County Sheriff Jack Laurie, 52-year-old David Weber, of Effingham, was driving the 1978 International Transtar 4300 dump truck on 262nd Road, near Dickinson Road, when the vehicle went off the roadway.

According to Laurie, the vehicle ran into a ditch, which caused it to rollover onto its side.

Weber, complaining of minor injuries, and his passenger, 56-year-old Jeanne Weber, also of Effingham, were both transported by Atchison County EMS to Amberwell Hospital Atchison for the treatment of a possible broken arm and other minor injuries.

The wreck happened around 2:45 Sunday afternoon.
