

Wreck north of Auburn claims woman's life

(KLZA)-- A two vehicle wreck in Nemaha County, Nebraska Wednesday afternoon claimed the life of an Omaha woman.

The Nemaha County Sheriff's Office received a report of a two-vehicle wreck north of Auburn on Highway 75 between 735 Road and 736 Road shortly before 3:00 p.m..

When Deputies arrived the investigation revealed that a southbound vehicle driven by Anne Reynolds of Omaha, crossed over the center line and struck a northbound vehicle being driven by Sara Wiltse of Nebraska City.

Reynolds was pronounced deceased at the scene of the wreck. Wiltse and a passenger in the Reynolds vehicle were transported to the Nemaha County Hospital in Auburn.

Seat belts were in use by both of the drivers.

In addition to the Nemaha County Sheriff's Department, the Brock-Julian Fire Department, Auburn Fire Department, Peru Fire Department, Auburn Rescue Squad, Peru Rescue Squad, Nemaha County Emergency Management and the Nebraska State Patrol responded to the scene of the wreck.

Many Signals Communications