

Johnson-Brock School Board meets

(KLZA)-- Johnson-Brock School Superintendent Jeff Koehler updated the Board of Education Monday night on traveling to Washington D.C. along with Principal Lucas Dalinghaus, Kindergarten teacher Kristine Ideus and Guidance Counselor DeeAnn Richardson to accept the Blue Ribbon Award for the school district on November 3 & 4.

The plaque and banner will be on display at the school.

Koehler also updated the board on personnel options and the building project plans. It was also noted the football bleachers have arrived and plans are in the works for installing them.

Board members also approved the sale of one of the spare buses through an auction site.

Carolyn Hahf updated board members on the Teammates program which currently has 95 matches and 30 students currently waiting on a match. She noted an alum recently donated $500 to the Teammates program and that Fast Global Solution in Auburn made a donation which will be used to purchase movie tickets to the Auburn Theater for mentees.

A teaching contract for the 2023-24 school year was approved for Glenda Deanne Riveros and the Board voted to increase Para sub pay by $20 per day.

Many Signals Communications