Man in custody in connection with Mound City Bank Robbery

(KLZA)-- A man is in custody as an investigation continues into a bank robbery in Mound City, Missouri, that occurred Wednesday afternoon.

FBI spokesperson Bridgette Patton told MSC News that at approximately 1:40 Wednesday afternoon a lone male entered the Citizens Bank and Trust at 904 State Street in Mound City, brandishing a firearm and made a verbal command for cash, then fled the bank with an undetermined amount of currency.

A unidentified man was taken into custody Thursday afternoon, no details of where the arrest was made, or where the man is being held were made available. At this time, no federal charges have been filed and no other details have been released.

No one was injured during the robbery.
