White Cloud home lost to Christmas Eve blaze

(KNZA)--A Christmas Eve house fire, in the Doniphan County community of White Cloud, has left a family without a home.

A fundraiser has been established for Dan and Sheila Lock by their daughter, Amber Huffman.

According to the GoFundMe, put in place following the fire, the Lock- were uninsured at the time of the blaze, leaving the family only with the clothes on their backs.

The $4,000 goal, as of Monday, had already been well exceeded, with all generated funds to be used, the GoFundMe says, “to rebuild their lives.”

No injuries were incurred in the fire.
