

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=75197>

Warming up car stolen in Atchison

(KAIR)--Atchison police are searching for a missing car, stolen early Tuesday morning while the driver was letting it warm up, due to the extremely cold temperatures.

According to a release from Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson, the 1996, green Toyota Corolla passenger car was parked, running in a driveway, in the 300 block of North 17th Street at the time it was taken.

Wilson says the crime occurred around 4:45.

Anyone with information related to the stolen Toyota Corolla should contact Atchison Police at 913-367-4323.

Many Signals Communication