

Stolen car recovery leads to arrest

(KAIR)--A stolen car is recovered, and the accused, Atchison thief is in custody.

That- according to a release from Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson, who says 59-year-old Leanna Michaels was arrested Wednesday for theft of a vehicle.

Wilson, in the release, says the 1992 Mercury passenger car was stolen around 12:20 Tuesday afternoon from a parking lot located in the 700 block of Atchison-Kansas Avenue.

The next day, Wednesday, the car was recovered by police, found that morning in a parking lot located in the 400 block of Main Street.

According to Wilson, it was a short time following the recovery of the car that Michaels was located and arrested.

Once in custody, she was booked into the Atchison County Jail.
