Horton woman arrested on meth charges after wreck

(KNZA)--A Horton woman was arrested on methamphetamine charges following a single-vehicle Brown County wreck this week.

According to a release from Brown County Sheriff John Merchant, a sheriff's deputy was dispatched Wednesday to a non-injury accident in the vicinity of 2100 and 240th Road

Upon investigation, Merchant said the driver and sole occupant, 47-year-old Tonya White, was arrested on charges of possession of meth and possession of drug paraphernalia.

Following her arrest, White was booked into the Brown County Jail.
