

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=75339>

Stolen car sought in Atchison

(KAIR)--Atchison Police are investigating the latest case of car theft in the city, following what could be described as a rash of such thefts in recent months.

In the latest case, Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson, in a release, says a 29-year-old victim reported the theft to police, saying that a 2008, white, four-door, Pontiac Grand Prix was stolen from the 1200 block of Kearney Street. It- believed the theft of the car took place around 4:30 Thursday morning.

Anyone with information related to the case should contact Atchison Police at 913-367-4323.

Many Signals Communications