

Minor injuries follow weekend motorcycle wreck

(KAIR)--Minor injuries are reported following the collision of two motorcycles in Effingham Sunday afternoon.

According to a release from Atchison County Sheriff Jack Laurie, 17-year-old Dylan Mullins, of Lancaster, was stopped at the intersection of Effingham's 4th and George Street when another Harley-Davidson struck his on the rear fender. That happened, according to Laurie, when 19-year-old Lancaster resident Lane Mullins lost control of his motorcycle while approaching the intersection.

Minor injuries were reported, and ambulance transport was not needed.

The wreck happened shortly before 3:30 Sunday afternoon.
