TV missing following Atchison burglary

(KAIR)--The latest reported Atchison residential burglary is under investigation by Atchison Police.

That's according to a release from Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson, who says the crime was committed at a residence located in the 300 block of North 3rd Street.

Investigators believe the burglary occurred between 1:15 and 1:50 Tuesday afternoon.

Stolen from the residence, according to Wilson, was a Toshiba 42" television.

Anyone with information related to the burglary should contact Atchison Police at 913-367-4323.
