Tuesday eve Atchison crash leaves injuries

(KAIR)--A two vehicle, Tuesday evening, Atchison crash caused injuries, but ambulance transport was not utilized.

Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson, in a release, says it happened at the intersection of 14th and Main Streets, at 6:00, when a pickup truck, driven by 17-year-old Everest resident Remington Roberts, was northbound on 14th Street, turning west onto Main, when a collision occurred with an SUV, southbound on Main, and driven by 71-year-old David Lackey, of Atchison.

The two drivers, as well as a 9-year-old passenger in Robert's truck, were evaluated at the scene by Atchison County EMS, but were not transported by ambulance.
However, Roberts and his passenger were taken to Amberwell Atchison, by private vehicle, for examination.

Lackey did not go to the hospital.

Roberts was cited for failure to yield.
