

Weekend motorcycle wreck injures two

(KAIR)--Details are released regarding a weekend Atchison County motorcycle crash that sent two to the hospital.

According to a release from Atchison County Sheriff Jack Laurie, 26-year-old Corrigan Depoy, of Atchison, was riding a Suzuki motorcycle southbound on U.S. Highway 73, along with a passenger, identified as 21-year-old Carley Jacobson.

Laurie, in the release, says it was when the motorcycle was near 230th Road, it struck a deer, causing Depoy to lose control.

Both Depoy and Jacobson received minor injuries in the wreck, and were taken to Amberwell Atchison, by private vehicle, for examination. Both were treated and released.

Atchison County EMS and Rescue assisted at the scene, and assessed both Depoy and Jacobson prior to their hospital visit.

The wreck happened around 9:00 Saturday night.

Many Signals Communications