

Rural Shubert man killed in farming accident

(KLZA)-- A rural Shubert, Nebraska man was pronounced dead at the scene of a farm accident Saturday afternoon on a farmstead west of Indian Cave State Park, off of 720 Road.

A release from the Nemaha County Sheriff's Department says 75-year-old Ron Shubert was attempting to detach a farm implement from a tractor when he was run over by the tractor.

The Sheriff's Department was notified of the accident shortly after 4:00 Saturday afternoon. The Falls City Volunteer Ambulance Squad and the Richardson County Sheriff's Office also responded to the scene.

The funeral service for Shubert will be Friday morning at 10:30 at the Shubert Christian Church.

Many Signals Communications