

Bank box crimes leave Atchison woman charged

(KAIR)--An Atchison Police investigation, focused on fraudulent access to a safety deposit box, had lead to the arrest of an Atchison woman.

According to a release from Atchison Police Chief Mike Wilson, 21-year-old Dreyona Seymore was taken into custody Monday, arrested on an Atchison County District Court warrant charging her with forgery and theft.

Wilson, in the release, explains that the investigation has been ongoing, opened to focus on the March 3 fraudulent access made to the safety deposit box, located at an Atchison bank. According to Wilson, cash was taken from the box at that time.

Following her arrest, Seymore was booked into the Atchison County Jail.

She has since been released on a bond of $20,000.
