Former Seneca resident killed in wreck

(KMZA)--Services have been set for a former Seneca resident killed last month in a two-vehicle wreck near Des Moines, Iowa.

Killed in the October 22nd wreck on Interstate-80 in Polk County, Iowa was 40-year-old Kimberly Barnhart.

The Iowa State Patrol reports she was the passenger in car driven by her 51-year-old William Barnhart, which struck the rear of a semi-truck.

William Barnhart was injured in the wreck.

Services for Kimberly Barnhart will be held at 10:30 Friday morning, November 3, at St. Mary's Catholic Church, in St. Benedict.

Barnhart is 2002 graduate of the former B&B High School.

She is survived locally by her parents, Stanley and Mary Alice Schmitz, of Seneca, along with two brothers, Harlan and Leroy Schmitz, both of Seneca.
