

<http://www.MSCNews.net/news/index.cfm?nk=76728>

Serious injuries avoided in Atchison Co rollover

(KAIR)--Despite detected minor injuries, hospital treatment was avoided following a Sunday night, Atchison County rollover crash.

According to a release from Atchison County Sheriff Jack Laurie, it happened in the area of K116 and Delaware Street, within the Atchison County limits of Arrington, where an eastbound Ford Ranger went off the road to the south. When it did, Laurie says the truck traveled up a hill and then came down the hill and struck a ditch, which caused the truck to rollover.

The driver, identified as 18-year-old Lancaster resident Lillian White, and her 18-year-old passenger, Seven Boyle, of Atchison, were both assessed at the scene by Atchison County EMS for minor injuries but refused transport.

Also assisting at the scene of the wreck, which happened around 9:20 Sunday night, was Atchison County Rescue.

Many Signals Communications