

Deputy County Attorney appointed in Richardson County
(KLZA)-- Richardson County Commissioners approved the appointment of Emily Sisco as a Deputy County Attorney on a contract basis when they met January 24.

Sisco currently serves as County Attorney in Pawnee County. She will assist the Richardson County Attorney's Office following the resignation of Deputy County Attorney, Alexandra Fleming on January 15.

In other business Highway Superintendent Steve Darveau Jr. reported the road crew did an outstanding job getting roads opened following the recent snow storms.

Darveau also reported a motor grader required a major repair from damage done while removing snow. He said the repairs have been made and the machine is back in working order.
