

Early election filings in Richardson County

(KLZA)-- There have been several people file for elections in Richardson County since the filing period opened January 5.

Rick Karas of Dawson has filed for reelection to the 3rd District Commission seat. Karas is a Republican.

Bobby Campbell of Rulo has filed for the Second District Commission seat. Campbell is a Republican.

Two incumbents have filed to continue serving on the District 70, HTRS School Board. Kyle Hilgenfeld of Stella and Mike Kanel of Humboldt both seek reelection.

Several people have filed for Village Board seats in Richardson County.

James Donahoe has filed for the Village Board of Stella.

Randy Handley, Branson Darveau and Scot Handley all seek reelection to the Barada Village Board.

Incumbents have until February 15 to file for election and non-incumbents have until March 1 to file.

For those seek Village Board seats, incumbents have until July 15 to file while nonincumbents have until August 1 to file for election.

Many Signals Communications