

10 arrested in Richardson Co drug bust

(KLZA)--Ten people were arrested on felony drug charges following numerous methamphetamine investigations this past week by the Richardson County Sheriff's Office.

The Sheriff's Office, in a release, said the investigations resulted in eight property searches, including four search warrants. The searches took place northeast of Humboldt, north of Stella, and in Falls City.

The Sheriff's Office says deputies found methamphetamine, cocaine, morphine, marijuana, concentrated THC, and suspected magic mushrooms.

Ten individuals were taken into custody on January 29th and 30th.

Eric Hestermann, of rural Humboldt, was arrested for possession of meth

Raymond Scarberry, of Falls City, was arrested for possession of a deadly weapon by a prohibited person, possession of a deadly weapon during the commission of a felon and possession of meth

Noel Johnson, of rural Stella, was arrested for possession of meth

Mariann Flores, of rural stella, was arrested for possession of meth and possession of marijuana

Taylor Rogers, of Falls city, was arrested for possession of meth, possession of cocaine, possession of marijuana and child neglect

Broderick Smith, of Falls City, was arrested for possession of meth

Rylee Ralston, of Falls City, was arrested for possession of meth

Bradley Donahue, of Powhattan, KS, was arrested for tampering with physical evidence, possession of meth, possession of morphine, possession of concentrated THC and possession of marijuana

Stacey O'Banion, of Falls City, was arrested for possession of meth

Nicole Harkendorff, of Falls City, was arrested for possession of meth and possession of marijuana

The Sheriff's office says charges are also pending against two additional individuals.

Many Signals Communications