

Two more arrested in Richardson Co meth investigations

(KLZA)--Two additional arrests have been made as the Richardson County Sheriff's Office follows up on several methamphetamine investigations that occurred at the end of January.

The Sheriff's Office said in a release that the follow-up investigations resulted in search warrants being served on two properties in Richardson County last week, one north of Falls City and one in Humboldt.

Deputies located methamphetamine, fentanyl patches, concentrated THC, marijuana and five firearms.

As a result, two arrests were made.

68-year-old Kyle Embretson, of Falls City, was arrested February 7th for possession of meth with intent to distribute while possessing a firearm, possession of a firearm during the commission of a felony, possession of fentanyl, possession of concentrated THC and maintaining a drug house.

62-year-old Mark Bratrsovsky, of Humboldt, was arrested February 8th on charges of possession of meth with intent to distribute within 1,000 feet of a school while possessing a firearm, possession of marijuana with intent to distribute within 1,000 feet of a school while possessing a firearm, possession of a firearm during the commission of a felony, possession of concentrated THC and maintaining a drug house.

Following their arrest, both men were booked into the Richardson County Jail.

The two arrests bring to 12 the total number of individuals arrested as a result of the meth investigations.
