Johnson-Brock School Board meets

(KLZA)-- The Johnson-Brock School Board approved a contract for Special Education Services with Educational Service Unit #4 in Auburn for the 2024-25 school year when they met Monday evening in an amount of $138,069.

Board members also voted to regretfully accept the resignation of high school math teacher Ryan Zuhlke at the end of the current school year.

Superintendent Jeff Koehler reported to the Board that there are 20 Pre-School students currently signed up for each of the 3 and 4 year old classes for the next school year.

Koehler also reported that he will be submitting a grant to receive funds for safety and security to upgrade the bell and PA systems and also a kick lock door system.
